

“Rachmaninoff, Gorky and Shaliapin”
Karp D. Trokhimenko - Oil on Canvas - 69”x 86”

Dear Friends and Collectors:

A beautiful Spring is upon us with stunning shades of green and flowers just beginning to awaken to the gorgeous weather we have been enjoying. Summer and all its beauty cannot be far behind.

As you may have heard, many people come again and again to ski in the winter, but they ALL come back for our wonderful Summer! You dear client, should do the same.

We will have artists painting in various locations, we will have several lectures on building an art collection on a budget, and of course we will have several lectures on understanding and collecting Russian fine art.

Please join us for any of the above dynamic programs. Or just stop by for a cup of delicious Russian Black tea! We will enjoy introducing some marvelous new artworks to you.

Please put a note on your calendar and do stop in and see us in the fabulous Solaris Building in beautiful Vail, Colorado.

Sincerely,
Jim
